

POTCREEK

MEADOW FARM

PRESS RELEASE

January 17, 2009 (Westin Hotel—Bellevue, WA)

Outgoing President of the Washington State Hunters & Jumpers Association, Jeff Anthony, presented Potcreek riders and owners with top honors at the Association's 2008 year-end awards banquet held at the Bellevue Westin Hotel.

Jumpers

Elite Level CHAMPION was Romeo, owned by Potcreek Meadow Farm

Equitation

Child <12 CHAMPION was Wendy Collins
RESERVE CHAMPION was Lauren Myers
Child 13-14 CHAMPION was Alexa Anthony
Child 15-17 RESERVE CHAMPION was Garrett Schmidt
Junior <15 CHAMPION was Alexa Anthony
RESERVE CHAMPION was Emily Hilott
Junior 16-17 CHAMPION was Carly Anthony
A/A 31-39 RESERVE CHAMPION was Wendy Hoff

Hunters

2nd Year Green CHAMPION was Tristan, owned by Emily Hilton
A/O Hunter >36) CHAMPION was Optimystic, owned by Bryn Redman
Small Jr. Hunter <15 RESERVE CHAMPION was Picture Perfect, owned by Alexa Allen
Child Hunter <12 RESERVE CHAMPION Turning Point, owned by Wendy Collins
Child Hunter 15-17 RESERVE CHAMPION was Picture Perfect, owned by Alexa Allen
Short Stirrup Pony RESERVE CHAMPION was Jiggly Puff, owned by Maude Collins
Large Jr. Hunter 16-17 RESERVE CHAMPION was Pharlee, owned by Kelsey King

About Potcreek

Potcreek Meadow Farm is one of the premier hunter & jumper show stables in the Northwest. Led by veteran trainer and Grand Prix rider Cara Anthony, Potcreek riders and horses compete successfully at events throughout N. America. Located near downtown Redmond, WA, the stable provides lessons, training and sales to riders of all levels. For more information, please call (425) 882-3558 or visit www.potcreek.com.